FREE FALL: Milton's Paradise Lost and Found – on Poydras

This exhibition, presented by the Helis Foundation, is a large-scale sculpture installation by New Orleans-based artist Dawn DeDeaux.

The work tributes Paradise Lost by John Milton, which was published in 1667 and is considered among the world's most important literary offerings. Selections from the epic poem appear on 64 concrete columns, installed at angles as though in a state of fall over several city blocks along Poydras near the Superdome. The text is generated in reflective vinyl to offer distinct appearances that vary from day to night. Makes for a fascinating addition to the Poydras corridor landscape.

“ The new year stands before us, like a chapter in a book, waiting to be written. ”
- Melody Beattie

SPINACH TORTELLINI SOUP

RECIPE SUBMITTED BY:

Ingredients:

- 1 - lb Sausage (Italian or your choice) - remove from casing
Note: we use Jimmy Dean Hot Pork Sausage
- 1 - 14.5 oz can chicken broth
- 4 - cups water
- 1 - 10 oz package frozen spinach, unthawed (chopped or leaf)
- 2 - 14.5 oz cans chopped or stewed Italian tomatoes, undrained (if using stewed cut up)
- 1 - can Rotel tomatoes (if you like spicy)
- 1 - clove garlic, chopped
- 1 - tablespoon Italian Seasoning (basil or whatever you have)
- 2 - 9 oz packages of refrigerated cheese filled tortellini (or 1 of the largest package)
- Shredded Parmesan Cheese

Method:

Crumble and brown Sausage with a little bit of olive oil. Add chicken broth and water; bring to a boil over med-high heat. Add spinach, tomatoes and seasonings and return to a boil for approx 10 minutes. Add tortellini and cook for 5 minutes. Sprinkle each serving with Parmesan Cheese. Yields approximately 16 cups

Note: Tortellini will absorb most of the liquid when you refrigerate leftovers. Just add more chicken broth when re-heating.

Easy to Make & So Satisfying!
